

MHSF History Long Term Curriculum Overview

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1
Year 3 Interpretation of History: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can sequence sources, events, images and artefacts. - I can use dates and terms related to the passing of time. - I can place key events and developments on a timeline and I am aware where this fits with present times. - I can identify and give reasons for different ways in which the past is represented. Historical Enquiry <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can identify similarities and differences between past and present. - I can identify and give reasons for different ways in which the past is represented. - I can distinguish between different sources 	Finchley Now & Then Migration & Diversity: How and why has Finchley changed over time? A local history study <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know how Finchley began as part of a small rural community and can place this on a timeline. - I know how our location and developments in transport have enabled Finchley to be established and its population to grow. - I know the significance of local landmarks and can use them to build a picture of the past. - I know some significant people who lived in Finchley. - I know how the demography of Finchley has changed over time and can suggest causes. - I am beginning to 		Stone Age to Iron Age Society: Which society was better and why? Changes in Britain from the Stone Age to the Iron Age Stone Age: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know some of the key features of Stone Age society. - I know the changes that occurred in farming and the domestication of animals and can explain how they enabled communities to develop. - I can explore technological advances in the Neolithic period of the Stone Age and learn about the significance of Stonehenge. Bronze Age: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know the key features of daily life in the Bronze Age. - I know how bronze replaced stone to make 		Ancient Egypt Civilisation: Were the Pyramids the greatest achievement of the earliest civilisations? The achievements of the Ancient Egyptian Civilisation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know where and when some of the first civilisations appeared. - I understand the key features of the earliest civilisations. - I know where Ancient Egyptian civilisation took place and understand the significance of the Nile in its establishment. - I know the structure of Ancient Egyptian societies and can use hieroglyphs and tomb paintings to find out about daily life in Ancient Egypt. - I can investigate the role, rights and

and say which is more useful. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can build a picture of the past. - I can use a range of primary and secondary sources. - I know the part archaeology has played in developing our knowledge. - I can observe small details in artefacts to learn about the past. - I can ask questions about the earliest civilisations and suggest ways to answer them. - I can begin to use the library and internet for research. 	understand that this situation can be typical of the wider area of Britain.		tools and can explain the impact this had. Iron Age: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know the key features of daily life in the Iron Age. - I understand where iron comes from and how iron weapons and tools were made. - I am beginning to know who the Celts were and how they lived. Comparison: I can explain the impact changes during this time in agriculture and the use of metal made to life and society.		responsibilities of the pharaohs and explore the lives of some of the most famous pharaohs. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know why and how the pyramids were built and the role peasants played in their construction. - I can investigate other inventions and achievements of the ancient Egyptians. - I know about some of the Ancient Egyptian beliefs and views of the afterlife.
--	--	--	--	--	---

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1
Year 4 Interpretation of History: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can evaluate the usefulness of different sources. - I can use evidence and sources to answer questions about the past. - I can use primary and secondary sources to explain and compare. - I can use text books and historical knowledge to learn about the past and draw conclusions. Historical Enquiry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can infer what life was like from artefacts and other primary and secondary sources. - I can use the library and internet for research. - I can use evidence to build a picture of the past and evaluate the sources. - I can select evidence (e.g. old burial grounds, artefacts and literature) to 	Ancient Greece Democracy: Was democracy the biggest gift from the Ancient Greeks to modern-day Britain? A study of Greek life and achievements and their influence on the western world. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know where and when the Ancient Greek civilization existed and understand that it was made from many different states. - I can reconstruct daily life in Ancient Greece including the role of women in Ancient Greek society. - I know the difference between a democracy, an oligarchy and a monarchy in ancient Greece. - I understand the religious beliefs of the Ancient Greek people and know some of the 			The Roman Empire Empire & Invasion: How successful was the Romans' invasion of Britain? The Roman Empire and its impact on Britain. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know who the Romans were and can briefly describe the expansion of the Roman Empire. - I know that prior to the Romans, Britain largely consisted of tribal groups, predominantly rural. - I know when and why the Romans invaded Britain including Julius Caesar in 55 BC/BCE and 54 BC to establish Roman links and Claudius in 43 AD/CE to control minerals and exports from this country. - I understand the difference between 'migration and immigration' and 'invasion and conquest'. 	Anglo-Saxons & Scots Power & Monarchy: Who ruled better: the Romans or the Anglo Saxons? Britain's settlement by Anglo-Saxons and Scots. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know the causes of the Roman withdrawal from Britain in c. AD 410 and the fall of the Western Roman Empire. - I know who the Scots and Anglo-Saxons were and where they came from. - I know why the Scots and Anglo-Saxons wanted to invade Britain and can compare this with Roman motives. - I know key features of Anglo-Saxon kingdoms and settlements and can use evidence to build a picture of daily life in an Anglo Saxon village. - I know the roles people played at different levels

present a picture of life in a different time period. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can ask a variety of questions regarding changes, causes, similarities and differences and offer valid responses. 	gods they worshipped. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can explain how modern life has been influenced by the Ancient Greeks, considering democratic principles of rule, maths, science, religion and architecture. 			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know why the Roman army was so successful and what life was like for a Roman soldier. - I understand why there was resistance to the Roman army, including why Boudicca stood up to the Romans and how we remember her today. - I can identify what we can tell about the Roman way of life from villas or forts. I understand how the Romans influenced the culture and lives of those living in Britain.	of Anglo-Saxon society. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I know how Anglo-Saxon Britain was ruled. - I know features of Anglo-Saxon culture. - I can explain how Britain was converted to Christianity, exploring places such as Canterbury, Iona and Lindisfarne.
	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1
Year 5 Interpretation of History: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can compare accounts of events from different sources - fact or fiction. - I can offer some reasons for different versions of history. - I can use the library or the internet for research. 	Early Islamic Civilisation Civilisation: What's the biggest achievement of this civilisation? A non-European society that provides contrast with British history. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I understand the legacy left for the world by early Islamic civilisation in 	The Vikings Empire & Invasion: Vikings - ruthless killers or peaceful settlers? The Viking and Anglo-Saxon struggle for the kingdom of England to the time of Edward the Confessor. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I understand why the 		The Changing Power of Monarchs Power & Monarchy: Which monarch gave up the most power in his or her reign? A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066.

Historical Enquiry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can ask historically-valid questions about cause, similarity/difference and significance. - I can begin to identify primary and secondary sources. - I can use sources to build up a picture of a past event. - I can select relevant sections of information. - I can use the library or the internet for research. - I understand the difference between primary and secondary sources. - I can use a range of sources to find out about an aspect of the past. - I can bring knowledge gathered from several sources together in a fluent account. 	Baghdad. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can contrast the achievements of early Islamic civilisation with those of British society at this time (Dark Ages - from fall of Roman Empire to 1066) - I understand what was in the House of Wisdom (what was it? What was it for? Who used it?). - I understand the importance of medical progress to early Islamic civilisation and the role of Al Zahrawi (comparison with medicine in Europe at the time). - I know who Ibn Battuta was and how his Rihla (documenting different and new civilisations through his travels) helped us. 	Vikings invaded England. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I can explain resistance to the Vikings by Alfred the Great and Athelstan. -I understand what the Danegeld was. - I can explain some key features of Viking life in England/ the contributions made by the Vikings to life in England. -I can explain the succession crisis of 1066. 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -I understand the difference between absolute and constitutional monarchy. -I can explain the balance of power between monarchy and the people at different stages in UK history (Magna Carta; Civil War; Glorious Revolution; Reform Acts). -I can compare these different balances of power and note a shift from monarchy to people/parliament. - I can explain the causes and effects of these events -I can explain the effects these events had on people's lives in Britain.
--	---	---	--	---	--

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1
Year 6 Interpretation of History: - I can link sources and work out how conclusions were arrived at. - I can think of ways to check the accuracy of interpretations (fact/fiction/opinion). - I am aware that different evidence leads to different conclusions. - I can confidently use the library or the internet for research. Historical Enquiry: - I can ask historically valid questions about similarity, difference and significance. - I understand the difference between primary and secondary sources. - I can use a range of sources to find out about an aspect of the past. - I can suggest omissions	UK Immigration Migration & Diversity: Should Britain encourage immigration? A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066: Changes in an aspect of social history. - I understand that many different peoples, with a multiplicity of different beliefs and backgrounds, have migrated to the UK over time. -I understand how some of these immigrants were treated when they arrived in the UK. - I can understand some of the problems caused by immigration. -I know some of the contributions made to the UK by immigrants.		Popular protest in Britain through time Society: Was there ever a British revolution? A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066: Changes in an aspect of social history. - I understand that there have been several key popular protest movements in Britain from 1381 to 1928 (Peasants' Revolt to Suffrage Movement). -I understand some key reasons for popular protest through time in the UK/beliefs of rebels and can compare them - I know the key features of the Peasants' Revolt -I know the key features of Chartism. -I can compare and note similarities and	Women/ WWII Rights: Have women's lives in Britain improved over time? A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066: Changes in an aspect of social history. - I understand that women were expected to take on traditional roles from the Middle Ages to the beginning of the 20th Century. - I know the achievements and dates of some individual 'amazing women' who broke the mould in their day despite prevailing traditions. - I know that pressure for women's rights was built in late Victorian times. - I understand the contribution of the Suffragettes to women's rights in the UK

and ways of filling the gaps.			differences between/ significance of Peasants' Revolt and Chartism. I can argue whether or not popular protests through time amount to a 'British Revolution'.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- I understand that not everyone shared suffragettes' views- I can compare (similarities, differences, significance) the women's suffrage movement from late 19thC to the Chartist movement.- I can explain how World War I and World War II changed the roles of and attitudes to women in the UK.
--------------------------------------	--	--	---	---	--